OKLAHOMA SECRETARY OF STATE

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Proclamation

Whereas, Digital Learning Day is an annual celebration of honored teaching practices and showcases innovative teachers, leaders, and instructional technology curricula; and

Whereas, Digital Learning Day provides our education system with the opportunity to acquire how to use technology in combination with great teaching to modernize, personalize and advance learning; and

Whereas, when used effectively, modern technology has the ability to make education and our lives more efficient, accessible and more rich; and

Whereas, Digital Learning Day is a powerful venue for education leaders to promote the effective use of modern day tools to improve the learning experience in K-12 schools; and

Whereas, the fifth national Digital Learning Day will take place on Wednesday, February 17, 2016, to assist teachers, librarians, students, schools, parents, policymakers, and the public on ways to integrate high-quality digital learning for every student;

Now, therefore, I, Mary Fallin, Governor, do hereby proclaim February 17, 2016, as in the state of Oklahoma.

“Digital Learning Day”

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Oklahoma to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, in the City of Oklahoma City, this 11th day of February, in the Year of Our Lord two thousand and sixteen, and of the State of Oklahoma in the one hundred and eighth year.
